Chance's Men in Rowdy Scene at Columbus-Norwich Team Gets a First Easeman-Games on Home Dia, monds Saturday.

Columbus, O., April 10.—Unless a movement started by friends of Umpire Watkins, who was handled roughly in today's game between the Chicago Nationals and Columbus American association team is headed off, Shortstop Tinker and Outfielder Hofman will be put under arrest and kept out of the opening game of the National league season at Cincinnati on Thursday. During a dispute over a decision that gave Columbus a run in the sixth inning, Tinker trampled on the umpire's feet with his spikes. In the seventh Hofman rushed at Watkins from behind and struck him, but was restrained by Manager Chance from following up the attack.

Chance then took all but three of his regulars off the field and the game was finished with Catcher Pat moran pitching. Moran was not scored upon. In the tenth four hits and two errors gave the patched up Chicago team five runs. It was announced tonight that in the future it will be impossible for the Chicago club to schedule an exhibition game in Columbus. In 1907 there was trouble similar to that which came up today. McGraw's Men Frolic with College Boys-Score 14 to 0.

The Yale nine received a severe drubbing at the hands of the Glants at the Polo grounds in New York on Saturday, being pounded all over the landscape for a total of 14 runs. The Elue couldn't seem to bring anything in that looked like a tally. It was the first home game for the New Yorkers and they enjoyed the frolic—and it wasn't much else for them—to the utmost.
